700, SAVED FROM WRECK, PRAY AS THEY LAND HERE

Spent Two Days and Nights of Terror on the Flooded Steamship Lithuania on Danish Rocks-

When the Scandinavian liner United States landed here to-day there fore the poured out of her cabins 726 Russian peasants, who knell upon the decks and the pier giving tearful, prayerful thanks for their safe voyage to this country after passing through the manifold terrors and perils of a midnight wreck at sea. With one accord they were hailing as their "Little Father From Heaven' Jans Jorgensen, the purser of the Russian steam- riedly written. ship Lithuania, on which they orginally started for America and which ing, that there could be no more mysthey saw go down on the rocks off the coast of Denmark on the night of October 21. It was Jorgensen who had led the rescuers, and it was life largely due to his efforts that not a soul lost his or her life in the dist it is expected that he will be strong Saturday.
